

Carrying out the Scandinavian idea, places at the table were marked by Froken for Miss and Herr for Mr. Attractive corsages of sweet peas were presented the women and clever boutonnieres were given to the men. ### VIKINGS WIN RELAYS AT SAN BERDOO

Santa Ana Dons Fail To Place In Orange Show Meet

Long Beach junior college ran off with all three of the jaycee relay events at the National Orange Show meets, at San Bernardino last Saturday. The meet, an annual affair, was held on the San Bernardino J. C. oval. Heavy winds prevented good times.

Coach Bill Cook's Dons failed to place in any of the events. Cook had teams entered in the four-man 440 yard relay, four-man medley relay, and four-man mile relay race.

Long Beach was given a battle in each event, but managed to come out ahead each time. The feature of the day was the jaycee medley race, which consisted of two 440's and 880, and a mile. The mile lap developed into a sensational duel between Black of Long Beach, and Ferrie of Glendale, which brought the crowd to its feet. Minch of Compton ran the best mile, but had too much of a handicap to overcome.

Barnes, Long Beach sprinter, was required to run a flashy lap in the four-man quarter mile relay to win. Captain Joe Warner, Leland Dresser, Tom Cone and Tom Donahue ran for Santa Ana in the medley two-mile. In the four-man mile relay, Ed Adams, Tom Cone, Elmer Whistler and Carl Schoenberg ran a good race. In the 440 yard four-man event, John Keeler, Warren Schutz, "Truck" Lindsey and Eric Reinau competed.

Summary of the J. C. division:
Four man, 440 yard relay—Long Beach, first; Glendale second; Los Angeles third; Compton fourth. Winning team, Groen, McFadden, Dorn, and Barnes. Time, 44 seconds flat.

Four man two mile medley—Long Beach first; Glendale second; Compton third; Los Angeles fourth. Winning team, Haden, Hurley, Carner, and Black. Time, 8 minutes 39 8-10 seconds.

Four man mile relay—Long Beach first; Los Angeles second; Glendale third; Pasadena fourth. Winning team: Haden, Groen, Ray and Hurley. Time, 3 minutes 35 seconds.

Junior college scores—Long Beach 15; Glendale 8; Los Angeles 6; Compton 3; Pasadena 1.

Phoenix Here Friday

Bruin five, while the other regular, Feddersen, was a reserve on the Phoenix five of last year. McCollom, guard, and Griner, forward, the other two in the starting lineup also worked their way up from the reserves of last year.

If Coach Foote's Dons can play the same fighting aggressive ball that they played last Saturday against Long Beach, they are likely to cause the invading Bruins all kinds of trouble.

Coach Foote has two teams that will all probably see action. His first team, which will probably start, are Schuchardt, Bertolet, Twist, Sweetnam, and Valentine. The second team which has proved so effective to date, is Dunham, Tanaka, Squier, Brown and Garlock.

The list of men making the trip from Phoenix is as follows: Mike Powers, center; Bob Drill, forward; Bob Feddersen, guard; Ernest McCollom, guard; Lee Griner, forward; Reid Callicote, center; Ed Morse, guard; Richard Milda, forward; Marion Reid, forward; William Smith, guard, Coach G. D. Hoy and the manager.

The probable starting line-up:
Phoenix J. C. Santa Ana J. C.
Drill F. Schuchardt
Griner F. Bertolet
Powers C. Twist
McCollom G. Sweetnam
Feddersen G. Valentine

Chaffey Leading

Chaffey junior college cinched the Southern California jaycee basketball crown last Saturday night by defeating San Bernardino 43 to 15, at San Bernardino. Carter led the winner's attack with 14 points.

San Bernardino made a great stand against the Ontario five in the first half which ended with Chaffey clinging to a two point margin, 10 to 8. The Gate City quintet's defense crumbled in the second half, however, and Chaffey piled up a top-heavy margin to capture the title.

Catherine Vander Bruggen, former member of the life saving team, has moved to Downey where she is attending high school.

Theresa Haugness visited her friend, Lauretta Flemmings, a former student, over the week end at Miss Flemmings' home in Long Beach.

Miss Ena White left last night for San Francisco where she will join her parents. Miss White was formerly a student of this high school.

Eliza Walker and friends enjoyed Saturday afternoon at Forest home.

Dons Lose Tight Basketball Game To Powerful Long Beach Vikings, 22-21

Failure to convert free throws cost the Santa Ana junior college a deserved victory over the Long Beach junior college Vikings last Saturday night on the Long Beach floor. Coach Bill Foote's Dons converted five free throws out of 13, while Coach Smith's Vikings tossed in 10 out of 15 tries, and therein lies the story of Long Beach's 22 to 21 basketball victory over the Santa Ana Dons.

It was a determined Don five that returned the second half, with the score 16 to 5 for Long Beach, to play the confident Vikings off their feet, tie the score twice, and then in the waning seconds of the game have Mike Sagerhorn, Long Beach forward, calmly toss a foul shot squarely through the loop, to win what had turned out to be anybody's game. Led by Carol Bertolet, and Hal Dunham, the Dons decidedly outplayed the Long Beach team in the second half, scoring 16 points to Long Beach's six. Santa Ana tossed eight field goals to the Viking's six.

During the first half the Long Beach team's fast-breaking and short passing plays easily penetrated the Don defense, to pile up a 11 point lead.

Jaycee Girls To Elect Hockey Leader Today

Elections for freshman and sophomore hockey captains are to be held today at regular three o'clock practice. As freshman and sophomore hockey tilts are to start next week, the captains will have enough time to organize their teams for the coming battles.

Both teams look about equal now. Earlier in the season it looked as though the sophomores would not have much of a show as only a few upper class girls turned out. Now, as the season is in full swing the sophomores have 14 candidates for the team. Four new sophomores turned out for practice Friday. These Dons are Mary Ford who will probably qualify for either center or right half; Katy Walbridge, who plays strong at fullback; Corinne Nelson who is fast at left wing; and Laurena Woods who will try out for left half. Regular positions on the team will be known Monday as the regular games start.

Hopes for the future are bright for the Dons as hockey playday draws near. Most of the sophomores have had previous experience, while some of the freshmen have played before. Many of the girls are new material but are advancing rapidly to first class players.

This year hockey playday will be held at Pomona junior college on Saturday, March 8, Tennis matches and speed ball will also be played at the beginning of the second half, but they gave way to the first string after a few minutes of play, when Bertolet and Dunham began to find the loop, and had raised the score to 17 to 12.

With two minutes to go, the fighting Dons had brought the score to 20 to 19. Bertolet then tied the score with a foul throw. A few seconds later Voorhees, Viking forward, was given a free throw, which he converted. Five seconds later Dunham was fouled and made good the toss to tie up the score 21 to 21. With seconds to play Sagerhorn then came into the picture with his timely free throw to end one of the most thrilling games of the season.

Again it was the Santa Ana substitutes that were required to make up what the starting line-up had lost. Bertolet with eight points to his credit, Dunham with five points, and Tanaka, with four points, did most of the scoring for the Dons. Sagerhorn was high point man for Long Beach with seven points, while Voorhees, the other highly touted Viking forward chalked up six points for his team. Voorhees points all came through the free-throw route.

The line-up:

Long Beach (22) (21) Santa Ana
Sagerhorn (7) F. Appleby
Voorhees (6) F. (4) Tanaka
Hermann (4) C. (2) Twist
Meyers (2) G. (2) Sweetnam
Mobley (2) G. Valentine
Substitutions: Santa Ana—Dunham (5), Bertolet (8), Schuchardt (1), Squier (1), Brown, Beatty Garlock.
Long Beach—Watkins (1), Landes, McLean, Hewitt, Whisler.

W. A. A. Cabinet

Outlines New Tasks

In the W. A. A. cabinet meeting Thursday, February 13, Katy Walbridge, president started the new semester out right by dictating the duties of each cabinet officer.

Plans were made for the cabinet dinner meeting Monday evening at Ketter's, and it was decided to discuss such important questions as the hockey squad, W. A. A. assembly and a W. A. A. issue of the Don at that time.

On this date, A junior college tennis team consisting of first singles and first doubles will be sent from here.

At Friday's hockey practice Alfred Ault, a former junior college student and now attending Occidental, took a number of snapshots of the Dons in action and also different action poses of members of the teams.

Pomona Defeated By Dons, 26 to 24

Santa Ana junior college won its third conference basketball game last night at Pomona 26-24.

At half time the score stood 18-10 for Pomona, but like in the Long Beach game, Coach Bill Foote's cohorts came back with a rush to outscore their opponents.

Twist with six points, Schuchardt, Brown and Squier with four points each, led the scoring for the Dons.

The game ended with a brilliant rally for the Cossacks but the drive fell short.

Life Saving Course Popular With Girls

"Progress and interest in Life Saving by the J. C. girls since its organization a year or so ago has been remarkable," says Mrs. Foote, swimming instructor. "Never has any activity developed more rapidly or has attracted so much attention as has Life Saving."

This year there are six J. C. girls out, with five of them taking junior examination tests and one working for her senior life saving emblem. The girls who have passed their senior examinations are dahruth Ellis, for examinations are Adaruth Ellis, Louella Marshal, Marion Parsons, La Vonne Olsen, and Mildred Staples, while Lurena Woods will take the senior test.

The only obstacle which keep the girls who have passed their senior test from getting the senior examiner's emblem is the age requirement. One must be 21 before he is allowed to try for senior examiner and only 18 for the junior examiner. A representative of the Pacific division of the Red Cross will come down to give the examinations.

When a person passes the junior examiner, he can then give exams to others as long as the work is supervised by one having passed the senior examiner. Here are just a few of the many requirements which must be passed along with an oral examination.

BRUIN SQUAD PLAY DONS ON LOCAL COURT

Visiting Team Out To Even Up Score of Last October

Phoenix junior college again invades the home of the Dons. Last September the Phoenix Bruins brought their football team to Santa Ana and received rather a severe jolt from the champion Dons. But this time they bring their basketball team to avenge for the humiliating defeat of last October. The game is to be played this Friday night, February 21, at Andrews gymnasium.

There is one way to compare the two teams, which makes the Bruins the favorites to defeat the Dons. They defeated the San Bernardino junior college 27 to 21, in one game, while in the second game the San Bernardino team downed the Bruins by a score of 26 to 21. This same Santa Bernardino team defeated the Santa Ana Dons by the score of 33 to 24.

In their other games the Ryan Druggists of Phoenix defeated them twice by scores of 31 to 19 and 30 to 25, while they defeated the Phoenix Indians in two games by scores of 34 to 25, and 37 to 26. They still have a two game series with the Gela J. C. of Thatcher, Arizona.

They are bringing ten players out to the coast, and have four games scheduled for the tour. Last night they played the Pasadena junior college. Tonight they play the Riverside jaycee, Thursday night they take on the Fullerton J. C. and Friday night they invade Santa Ana in an attempt to even up for last October.

Mike Powers, first string center, was a regular last season, Drill, forward was also a regular on the 1929 team.

There is a will on record (not Orange county, however) of a man who left $15 to buy a cow for three women. After the cow had a calf—providing it was a heifer—they were to keep the calf and pass the "cow down the line" to "another friend whom they may have a sense of to be deserving."

Bachelors' Club History Related FORMED 12, 1925

Don Hillman Elected Grand Exalted of First Organization

Thirteen may be unlucky for old maids but it is the very foundation of the Brotherhood of Bachelors. Anyway, the well known Bachelors order was first organized November 12, 1925, at Santa Ana junior college by 13 prominent Dons who chose as their first Grand Exalted, Don Hillman.

The now firmly established custom of observing Bachelor Sabbath twice each month was originated at the second meeting of the order on November 24 and a penalty of 25 cents was to be assessed the unfaithful. Sabbath was observed from sundown Tuesday until sundown Wednesday, much longer than the present one. Now a severe paddling is administered to the occasional sinners.

The first annual Bachelors' ball was held at the Hotel Angelina at Anaheim on the following February 22, under the supervision of Lawrence Minge—a social affair which has become a Don tradition. It was decided that Bachelors would act as a group to remove anyone from the floor guilty of unbecoming conduct—a custom which has since been followed and has led to the establishing of a standing of respect in the college.

Ten pledges blazed the way for future sufferers in initiation by parading through the streets of Santa Ana, shivering in their pajamas, on the evening of December 10, 1926. After amusing the passing citizens for some time, the unfortunates made their way to the home of Ross Fields, headquarters for the evening, and a few minutes after their arrival were accosted by two officers who charged them with indecent exposure and disturbing the peace. Cell reservations were made for them as guests of the city at the well known Hotel de Jernigan but it was later disclosed that the affair was framed.

President D. K. Hammond and J. A. Cranston, City Superintendent of schools, have been honorary members of the fraternity since 1927 and Dean McKee Fisk joined the order this year. T. B. Kelly, the first faculty adviser, was succeeded by Walter L. Scott, who has retained the position.

Ed Settle was appointed editor of the Bachelors' Bulletin June 10, 1927, an original publication which was continued until this year. It included comment on current subjects as well as bits of humor. The first edition of the Don sponsored by the club was that of November 28, 1928 and the second was published last spring. Believing that the Daily Don and Weekly Don are sufficient, no bulletin has been issued this year.

Capistrano Scene Of O. K. Club Event

Nine different states were represented when members of the O. K. club met in front of the junior college building last Wednesday evening to drive to the home of Miss Hazel Guilbert in San Juan Capistrano for their monthly social.

Plans for another assembly a little later in the year were discussed, and a committee composed of Miss Helen Mayes, chairman, Miss Eunice Hansen, and Kirby Todd, was appointed to make arrangements. It was also decided that the club should edit an edition of the Don doing "Y" week. Art Beddoes was appointed in charge of the edition, assisted by Miss Eleanor Randall and Eldon Hermes.

After the business meeting the remainder of the evening was spent in playing "Hearts". High honors went to Mrs. Scott and Nevin Hoy, while Miss Helen Mayes and Carol Bertolet won consolation prizes.

Okayers present and the states they represented were: Misses Eunice Hansen, North Dakota; Hazel Guilbert, California; Mary McHenry, California; Helen Mayes, Colorado; Helen Krone, Montana; Doris Cor-

Valentine Party Motif Of Spanish Social At Orange

Seniors and senioritas of the Cervantes club journeyed to the home of Miss Mary Ford's sister at 284 Jewel Place, Orange, last Wednesday evening to celebrate the opening fiesta of the semester.

Saint Valentine was the spirit of the occasion and the rooms were cleverly decorated in these pleasing color combinations. Election of officers was the business of the evening. Officers chosen to rule the realms of the Cervantes club this semester are: Erich Reinau, president; Vernon Valentine, vice-president; Miss Grace Haskell, secretary-treasurer, and Ed Connor, reporter. Various games were played after an old-fashioned box supper with Miss Mary Louise Wallace, Miss Mildred Staples, and Miss Lillian McDonald in charge. All conversation was carried on in Spanish causing a little merriment in several cases during the evening.

Erich Reinau, president, has announced no definite plans for the semester, but reports are such that another social event of great enjoyment is not far distant.

Dons and Donas attending the fiesta were Miss Mildred Staples, Miss Mickey Jimenez, Miss Mary Ford, Miss Evelyn Harding, Miss Virginia Thomas, Miss Agnes McKinstry, Miss Isabella Siracusa, Miss Phyllis Jamison, Miss Grace Haskell, Miss Lillian McDonald, Erich Reinau, Don Parks, Vernon Valentine, Ed Connor, John Gordon, Horace Berry and Ernest Stump.

Palm Canyon Scene Of Botany Excursion

Combining pleasure with business a few of the members of the botany 2B and botany 4 classes with J. Russell Bruff, instructor, travelled to Palm Springs last Saturday. Stopping here and there along the way to collect and examine different kinds of specimens of desert plants, the group reached Palm Springs canyon in the desert at noon.

After lunch in picnic fashion interspersed with conversation, some of the botanists accompanied by Bruff walked up the creek in Palm canyon to find and identify interesting plants common to the desert.

On the return trip several stops were made to discover certain specimens of especial interest to botanists because of their close relationship to several other species of plants. In this phase Mr. Bruff was successful.

No stops were made thereafter until picnic supper was enjoyed.

Finally at eight o'clock, tired but happy, the botanists reached their respective homes, all eager for another interesting field trip.

Botanists who made the trip were Miss Mary Elizabeth Smith, Miss Elva Cook, Miss Helen Hendricks, Miss Audrey Teel, Miss Catherine Cosner, Don Young, Rutherford Williams and J. Russell Bruff, instructor of botany.

OVER THE EDITORS DESK

By RODNEY CHAMBERLAIN

THE BACHELORS BALL

There is no reason why the Bachelors' Ball next Saturday night shouldn't be the most elaborate school function Santa Ana junior college has ever staged or will stage for several years to come. The Norconian club is probably the most beautiful of its kind in Southern California and the Varsitonian club orchestra will easily surpass orchestras of past school functions.

A few faint murmurs may be heard over the campus objecting to the asserted extravagance of the brotherhood in arranging anything better than a "four bit" dance with a "two bit" orchestra. The organization is easily financing the dance and the charge of $1.50 a bid per couple is so small for an evening's entertainment that objections are out of order.

It is well worth the price of admission to be permitted to spend the evening at the elite club not considering the dancing and entertainment. Surely no fellow can expect to spend less than $1.50 for an evening dance.

There should be one outstanding dance, as formal as possible, every year at Santa Ana J. C. and, the Brotherhood of Bachelors is the oldest established club, it is quite proper that they take charge.

It would be an advantage to all concerned if the Executive Board would come to the realization that there should be one crowning affair of the annual school activities and finance it to the same extent it has been financing other dances instead of attempting to limit it to the status of an ordinary affair.

AN ALARMING SITUATION

The present condition of business and employment, in California especially, is becoming alarming. While politicians chant prosperity thousands of employees are being laid off and thousands more are walking the streets searching for jobs which don't exist.

Every business man recites the same tale of woe—no business. The service station operator asks me how people are driving automobiles without buying gasoline. Only last night my barber was wondering if people were all letting their hair grow.

ANOTHER WAY

Yet why does the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and the chambers of most of the cities of California advertise throughout the eastern states to urge more people to come to the Golden State. Alluring descriptions of the low cost of living and the excellent conditions here are going to make the already deplorable situation of employment much worse.

It is incredible that the chambers of commerce can't see that there aren't enough jobs for Californians without inviting the jobless from other states.

THE BOX BILL

It is more incredible that supposedly honest and intelligent men of note are fighting the Box Bill which would exclude the immigration of Mexicans. A surprising number of Americans must support themselves and their families by doing common labor. Today they are outnumbered by Mexican laborers who can work for starvation wages so what will it be tomorrow?

The number of Mexican families already residing in California are increasing at such an astonishing rapid rate that their offspring will create a great problem in years to come. If more Mexicans are admitted, they may outnumber the whites in Southern California. The task of educating the Mexican masses alone is an enormous task because they pay practically no taxes for their education.

BOOK REVIEWS

"BEAU GESTE"

Percival Christopher Wren
A colorful story of the French Foreign Legion.

"BEAU SABREUR"

Percival Christopher Wren
A fitting sequel to Beau Geste, with a gallant French officer as hero and a cool American girl as a heroine.

"DOBE WALLS"

Stanley Vestal
A historical romance of the old Southwest in the days of Kit Carson. 'Dobe Walls' is extraordinary effective, both as an historical novel and as a tale of adventure.

"MAN BEHIND THE BOOK"

Henry Van Dyke
A volume of smoothly written literary essays conservative in tone and frankly critical of modern matters.

SMILE-DARN IT-SMILE

Last year gas killed four thousand nine hundred and fifty-two persons. Thirty inhaled it, nine hundred and twenty-two lit matches over it and four thousand stepped on it.

Geology professor: Rankin, how does it happen that you have hill No. 20 over here where No. 13 is supposed to be?

Rankin: Merely a topographical error, sir.

There was a shy young man who wanted to propose to his lady love, but never dared. Finally he told her of his family lot in the cemetery and said: "Wouldn't you like to be buried there some day?"

Ezra never reads more than one Sunday paper because he doesn't want to make two trips to town that day.

What always comes in pairs?

Scissors?

No, pear seeds.

Caller: Is your husband a fast writer?

Poet's wife: Fast? Why, the other day I got out seven lines of washing while he was getting out four of poetry.

Whatcha doing?

Yeh? What's the subject matter?

It doesn't.

Daughter: Mother, there's a grammatical error in the bible.

Mother (absently mindingly): Squash it right away, dear. I bet that's the very thing which has been chewing on the bookmark.

Submission

She leaned over closer to me. Her body seemed to become limp as she let one knee slip off the other. I watched her head. It was nodding a little uncertain and ever so slowly. Her lips were parted. Her long eyelashes dropped and her pretty brown eyes looked out drunkenly from underneath her half closed eyelids. She closed her tiny hand as if stifling off a terrible temptation. Then, as if it were beyond her power she emitted a little sigh. Her hand relaxed and her head dropped. I bent down and looked up in her face. Her eyes were entirely shut.

It was the second time that week she had fallen asleep in history lecture.

She: Boo-hoo, our little boa constrictor died.

Stranger passing by: Poor woman! Was he your only child?

She: No-no, but he was our only lemon squeezer.

Collegiate Proverbs

1. Eat, drink and be merry, for the first hundred courses are the hardest.
2. The first hundred courses are the hardest.
3. A right answer turneth away rozes.

Jim: "Have you a moment to spare?"

Bill: "Sure, what can I do for you?"

Jim: "Tell me all you know."

Don Puzzology

HUNTADOS

This is grand in slang.

LIPPACRIN

Generally greatest interest.

YITIUNIQU

This is bad.

Editors note: This department will be conducted as a regular feature in the Don each week, with answers appearing the following week. The letters in the capitals have been jumbled out of order and the object is to adjust the letters to the correct word, which will define the sentence below it. Try your vocabulary now and watch next week's Don.

I say, what do you wear under your coat?

Underwear.

Under your coat.

Underwear.

My gosh, but you're dense.

A sure-fire ad: Our touch system can be learned by anyone who is not a moron. It can be learned by morons too.

Mary had written her mother that she had been dating with a cross-country man since going to college. She was surprised to receive the following note from her parents. "Paw and I don't object to you running around with a country man, but we just can't understand why you don't pick out a congenial fellow instead of a cross one."

Hopeful: I wonder if it is true that the length of a boys' arm is equal to the circumference of a girls' waist? Hopeless: Let's get a string and measure it.

Now, Paul, tell me why we put the hyphen in bird-cage.
It's for the bird to sit on.

Farmer (to his son, who is a big league ball player spending his vacation on the farm): Is the mare in good shape after her day's plowing?

Son: Yeah, she's all right, except that she has a little Charley horse.

Farmer: Heavens, and I didn't expect that for two weeks.

Am I lucky? Say if I was starving to death and there was a shower of soup I'd be standing there with a fork in my hand.

I don't stutter when t-talking. Just w-when I'm rhyming. It helps f-fill the meter out. And c-corrects the timing.

He caught his toe on the stair. How far'd he have to chase it?

Did you hear about the fellow who wanted to marry Greta Garbo for her money?

Are you a sailor's sweetheart? I should say not. I don't like salt with my mush.

It was noon at the mosque. The high priest was intoning, "There is but one God and Mohammed is his prophet."

A shrill clear voice broke in, "He is not!"

The congregation turned around as one, and among the sea of brown faces could be distinguished one small, delicate yellow one.

The genial priest straightened up and smiled, "There seems to be a little Confucian here," he said.

They tittered when I sat down to the piano. Darn those tight trousers.

Gr-r-r-r

Eddie, age four, stood in the kitchen of his home watching his mother prepare the evening meal. For several minutes he watched the proceedings without comment, but when the potatoes were put on to fry he drew closer to the stove.

"Gee, ma," he said, "listen to those potatoes grind their teeth."

Prof: How much time did you spend on your psychology, young man?

Student: Three hours, sir.

Prof: Then what happen?

Student: My chum woke me up.

Sabbath

"Hey, Gertie, who are those funny looking guys walking down the hall? and blunders on. Why don't they get a cup and a bag of pencils?"

dear; you know today is Bachelor Sabbath. They don't even give us femmes a break by speaking to us."

"Aint that too bad. How do they get along?"

"Last week saw that Half-Pint Tanaka talking deaf and dumb with May Kikuchi, so I guess they don't. If the club should abolish crap shooting, too, an the Sabbath, he'd have to resign. Gee, here comes Chet Page. He's gonna take me to the ball next Saturday."

"Aw, he ain't so hot. I hear he's got flat feet. I'd like to go to the ball though."

"Well, I hear that bashful Ernest Stump hasn't a date yet."

"He hasn't? I'm gonna get busy. So long, dearie."

Guilty

With square-set jaw and face as solemn as a judge, a man in striped overalls, dark coat and black hat, taking a pad and pencil from his pocket stepped in front of a short line of innocent appearing automobiles.

There was suspicion in his eyes. They seemed to say, "Guilty, guilty, guilty," and straightway he began writing down the numbers and searching for the owners' names somewhere in the drivers' compartments of the cars.

It seemed that one could hear all those vehicles protesting against this procedure and pleading their innocence in this wise: "Oh mister, why are you putting our numbers on that pad? We are not disturbing the peace, but just quietly and patiently waiting for our masters and mistresses to return from the scholastic institution where they are learning to become good law-abiding citizens."

Solemnly shaking his head the man seemed to say: "Ah yes, but you are on forbidden ground; therefore I must do my duty. Your masters and mistresses will be given a two day suspension from school without credit and what not, this will give them an opportunity to learn what adjacent to the school grounds means in the school regulation regarding the parking of students' cars."

Lion Again

In the class room, as a general rule, little attention is paid students who come trailing into class a few minutes tardy. It is such a frequent occurrence that one thinks little of it. Everyone glances over to see who is entering and then turns his attention back to the lecture.

Tuesday at the scheduled hour, E. M. Nealley's philosophy class met to discuss immortality, the soul, and such subjects of general interest. After nearly half hour of discussion a sound was heard at the door and in came five young men.

They walked in single file as orderly and quiet as if practice had made it possible. With sober countenances Baxter Geeting, Felix Garnsey, Delmar Brown, Fred Humiston and Bill Hewitt stealthily took adjoining seats in the second row of chairs.

Some, wondering what it was all about, seemed unable to solve the problem. At this sudden lull Mr. Nealley with funeral like gravity informed the intruders that he was glad to see them.

Things began to untangle. Someone said they were Junior Lions who had been to a big doings at the St. Ann's Inn. That's what it was; because the bulletin board told all about it.

Dailies

Say, have you got any scratch paper? I want to put a notice on the bulletin board.

No, I haven't but here's an old Daily Don. You can use the back of it.

The scene transfers to the library. Oh, a blotter I need a blotter, quick!

Gosh, I've lost mine. Try this Daily Don. They work pretty good sometimes.

Where's something to mark my place in this book? I hate dog-eared books.

Here's a Daily Bull. Write your name on it and park it in the volume.

Say, these little things are handy. Famous last words: Do you ever read the Daily Don?

Exchanges

Santa Monica Junior College

Used texts are to be sold through the common source of the student cabinet. The price of new books and used ones will be posted at the various stations so the buyers will realize how much they are saving. The charge will be ten cents per book as a commission.

California Tech., Pasadena Calif.

Faculty members are to present their opinion of student activity and social life on the campus as a part of the next assembly program. Students will also be called upon from the floor to give their views. In this manner it is hoped that a better understanding will exist between teachers and students.

Dialing

"Well folks, here we are all set for the big Smith-Jones bridge game". Thus might Graham McNamee, nationally famous radio announcer, broadcast his running account, should he desert the virile game of football for the more refined game of bridge.

"The game is being played on the home table of the Smiths here on the beautiful Gold Coast of Chicago. And what a night for any man's bridge game. The temperature is about 60 degrees; the drawing room, which is done in blue and gold, is literally overflowing with roses and orchids. The playing surface is in fine shape and everything points toward a fast and furious game."

"Here come the players now. The Smiths are wearing black and the Joneses are wearing brown. Both sides warm up as the deal takes place."

"They're off! The Joneses set the trump and the first trick is about to be played."

"Mrs. Jones leads two aces taking two tricks. Now she trumps her dummy's lead. She takes another trick. No, she doesn't! Someone trumps her king. That was the north, Mr. Smith, that stopped that advance. Hanging right in there Smith."

"Now I am going to turn you over to the microphone in the Smith nursery and let you hear some of the yells."

"Here we are back again in the drawing room. There are only three tricks to be played and both sides are fighting like mad. The Smiths have the lead and are swamping the Joneses with high spades."

"Now Mrs. Jones trumps from her own hand and smashes through taking the last trick and fulfilling her contract with the ace of hearts."

"And that ends that man's bridge game. What a game! What a game!"

Well dear friends of the radio world, I'll be with you again next week at the Harvard-Yale chess match. Until then toodle oo."
